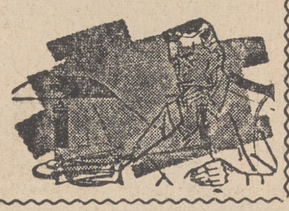
The DIMMER VIEW



by Max Goodwin

The D.A. Caper (Part 2)

In the last issue, we presented a backgrounder for the district attorney's race. Some of the forces being exerted were revealed. It was suggested that the reputations of some of San Diego's leading citizens were being damaged in an attempt to throw suspicion on the operation of the district attorney's office.

Some matters have been flagrantly distorted and in a special case the former Federal Attorney here, Edward Miller makes a charge regarding mishandling of bookmaking cases in which he himself knew better. Miller will face assistant district attorney Bob Thomas in the general election if political prognosticators read the race properly.

Some of the accusations hurled by Miller's clique against the past operations of the DA's office need to be answered.

1. The Russ Ormsby case in 1958-60.

The vice squad of the S.D. Police Department took gratuities and admitted it to the Grand Jury Ormsby was demoted. The DA's office had properly investigated and prosecuted the matter. By his own investigation the DA uncovered and prosecuted 40 bookmakers and broke two of the biggest bookmaking rings.

2. Hard stand on narcotics.

Former U.S. Attorney Edward Miller flatly refused to prosecute many federal smuggling cases involving restricted dangerous drugs and marijuana. Most of these cases involved less than 2,000 pills and marijuana to make 300 cigarettes or less. These cases were sloughed because the U.S. Attorney would not prosecute small cases according to present District Attorney Don Keller. The U.S. Attorney viewed them as misdemeanors. California Legislature has since made them felony cases. Keller was disturbed by the U.S. Attorney's determination because these small-time operators were the ones feeding the stuff to school kids. To slow down the high school drug traffic, Keller's office prosecuted 597 smuggling cases that were the responsibility of the U.S. District Attorney's office the final year Miller was in charge, Keller said.

3. Narcotics control coordination.

Narcotics raiders work closely with the DA's office and stay in close communication with district attorneys assigned to the raids. There are always five or six DAs with raiders to write search warrants and to give legal advice to police 24 hours of the day. Raids are joint ventures with narcotic bureaus, sheriff's departments and police — often involving as many as 200 officers in some of the finest team work seen in the nation.

4. Police Department misconduct.

The Internal Revenue Service, in March, 1969, indicated that some SD Police officers might have been on the take. The DA, together with the State Attorney General, launched an investigation. Seeking accuracy rather than character assassination, the two forces ran down lead after lead. On Jan. 22, 1970, the report was completed by the DA's office. The next day, on Jan. 23, it was delivered to S.D. Police Chief James Roed and City Manager Walter Hahn.

5. Infestation of San Diego by organized crime family members.

Several members of midwest crime families have come to San Diego attracted by the climate that has attracted thousands of honest people. They can't be prosecuted for coming here to retire. There is some belief that the fraternity would become active if the DA's ability and enthusiasm for prosecution was lessened. This may well be a key consideration in the DA's race. If the crime fraternity could be prosecuted for back-East activities, it is the U.S. Attorney's responsibility to prosecute. Organized crime transcends state lines. The U.S. Attorney made no effort to prosecute crime family members as they came to San Diego.

6. The DA tolerates selective prosecution of bookmakers.

The San Diego DA's office has a reputation of the most aggressive bookmaking prosecution in the state. The DA took John Alessio on the Caliente 5-10. This case is in the District Court on appeal right now. Conversely, bad suits by former U.S. Attorney Miller involving Federal Gambling Tax stamps and two $5 bets, could not be prosecuted on the evidence developed. It was so garbled that neither the Grand Jury nor the courts could understand it, Keller said.

Retiring DA Don Keller said this week that he had complained to the U.S. Attorney General that former U.S. District Attorney Miller was unable or unwilling to prosecute narcotic and drug smugglers in the San Diego area. Miller was later relieved of his post.

Keller also complained that several of Miller's bookmaker case proceedings were thrown out of court due to Miller's inability to develop the right questions on the stand and to produce proper documents to establish bookie cases.

20,000 See Oldtime Days Parade As Entries March On Broadway

It was Lemon Grove's finest moment Saturday as a crowd estimated at 20,000 turned out for the 7th Annual Lemon Grove Oldtime Days Parade.

This year's parade had something for everyone, including a runaway horse, and a bucking horse, and 117 entries.

Both incidents occurred right at the heart of the parade as the line of march reached the railroad tracks.

The horse that ran away was spooked by the powerful engines of the souped-up Dune Bugs and raced along Broadway scattering the many spectators who had crowded out into the road.

The rider, believed to be Sherry Leanders, screamed for youngsters to clear the way and fought her frightened horse to control half a block past the tracks. The brave young lady then brought the animal back to her place in the line of march and, to a rousing hand from the spectators, continued to the end of the parade.

The bucking horse was ridden by a young lady carrying the State Flag. The animal became skittish and then began to buck, but a spectator ran out and grabbed the horse's reins, bringing it under control.

The float of Cub Pack 318, sponsored by United Church of Christ, Congregational, won first place in the float contest. Levis and Laces float took the second place trophy and an Honorable Mention award went to the entry from St. Phillips Episcopal Church.

Six first-place winners were named in the Children's Costume contest, sponsored by the Senior Citizens Club.

First places went to Brenda Hopkins, in the pre-school category, for girls, and Ricky Halverson, for boys.

In the five-to-eight category Rene Rein took top honors for girls, while Vernon Maguzzi made off with the prize for boys.

Mary Varoz netted the blue ribbon in the girls 9-12 division and Darrell Thompson was the winner in the boys competition.

Trophies were presented for the winners by Sandi Sjogren, Miss Lemon Grove, along with trophies for second and third placers.

Oldtime Days has already been marked a huge success by all involved, but it isn't over yet. Members of the Oldtime Days Committee met Monday night to begin planning the community-wide July 4th Picnic that will officially end this year's festivities. Details of the picnic will be announced as soon as they are completed.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department responded to two house fires and three grass fires during the week of May 18-25.

On May 24 at 6:30 a.m., firemen went to the home of Mrs. Shirley Reed at 3169 Citrus st. A fire, which possibly began in a couch and rug in the living room, caused about $2500 smoke damage. Spring Valley Beautiful Campaign Called Success

With final reports all in, the Spring Valley Community Council reports that its Commuity Clean-up days were a huge success primarily due to the support given by the Disposal Units, Thomas & Son, Dependable Disposal and Sani-Tainer along with the business men who allowed the containers to be placed within their business areas.

Also the Boy Scouts along with the Cub Packs of Highland, La Presa, Rancho and Avondale Schools did a tremendous community service in getting out and helping to pick up litter within their area.

The response was so great this year that nearly double last year's collection went into the bins located throughout the Valley. This means that nearly 200 tons of debris was collected in the campaign. This consisted mainly of old mattresses, furniture, boilers, car parts, etc.

The Community Council together with the San Diego County War Against Litter wish to thank each and every organization that took part and are awarding Certificates of Participation to these units.

Sporting Goods Store Hit For $5,000 Friday

An unidentified suspect(s) knocked a hole in the back of a sporting goods store at 6941 Federal blvd. last Friday night, and made off with over $5,000 worth of merchandise, according to the sheriff's deputy report.

Deputies said that they received a call late Friday night to investigate the store, and found a hole approximately two feet in diameter in the rear of the building, hidden behind some empty cardboard boxes.

Entering the building, they found considerable evidence of burglary. The owner of the store said that 31 hand guns and two rifles were among the merchandise lifted from the store.

Also, a large safe, with $1,556 in cash was missing, along with 9 sleeping bags and other merchandise. The police lab dusted for fingerprints and took casts of footprints in the rear of the building. No suspects have been taken into custody.

COOPERATES — Pretty, leggy Barbara Fletcher, of Lemon Grove, renews her drivers' livense under the Department of Motor Vehicles suggested "speed lane" program. DMV offices in the county are encouraging patrons to come in at 8 a.m. Usually Mondays and Fridays at 8 is best. In the photo, Paul Haider of Lemon Grove is renewing Miss Fletcher's certificate. He is assigned to the Chula Vista branch of DMV at 11 3rd st. Miss Fletcher is secretary of the Viking Fence Co. on Harris St., Lemon Grove. Because schools will be out Friday and DMV offices will be open, an unusual crowding condition is anticipated on this day only, according to DMV officials. There is also an office in La Mesa. Grossmont Board O.K.'s Policy Recommendations

The Grossmont Governing Board has approved a modification of their drug expulsion policy as outlined by a drug policy review committee.

The committee, formed by the Board in October and made up of representatives from the community, teachers, students and District administrators, recommended continuation of the general structure of the present policy of expulsion of students for involvement with dangerous drugs or narcortics either on or off-campus.

Several modifications were suggested in the processing of students and the services available to them in order to strengthen the effectiveness of the policy and to make it more uniformly applicable to all students.

A basic modification in the policy recommended by the committee was that in the case of an off-campus violation the student would be allowed to remain in school after the parent conference with the vice principal and until the Governing Board had taken action. Presently on- and off-campus violators are suspended from school immediately pending Governing Board action.

In the area of rehabilitation the committee suggested that "several major services should be made available to the student and family after expulsion in order to bring more involvement to the student and his family in the processes of restoration of educational privileges and the rehabilitation into the main stream of student life." Rehabilitation procedures would include a series of group counseling instructional meetings.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Would you clarify the meanings and variations in usage for the expressions "ante, antes de, and delante de?" Also if you would give the correct usage of "despues de, detras de, and tras" it would be most helpful.

"Ante" means "before" as in "ante el tribunal" which would be translated as "before (in the presence of) the court." "Antes de" means "before" also and relates to time and order. This may be seen in the example "antes de salir" which means "before leaving."

"Delante de" is another expression that means "before". We may use "delante de" when we wish to express "before" in relation to place This may be seen in "El esta delante de la casa," which is translated "He is (before) in front of the house."

"Tras" means "after" and relates to succession. For example, "tras la tormenta" means "after the storm." The expression "detras de" also means "after" but in the sense of "behind". Thus "Esta detras de la puerta" could be translated "It is behind the door."

"Despues de" refers to "after" in regard to time. We might say "Despues de cenar vamos." for "After dinner we will go."

Some of these very interesting phrases are used in the practice sentences listed below. You may enjoy learning them with the aid of the recorded voice that says them for you in an easy word-for-word basis when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

Tijuana No Excuse

Normally, a taxpayer has 90 days to appeal to the Tax Court after the Internal Revenue Service proposes a tax increase. If the taxpayer is out of the United States however, he is allowed 150 days.

In a recent California case, a taxpayer claimed the full 150 days for appeal because, on the day that the notice of proposed tax increase was sent, he had visited Tijuana.

The Tax Court held that while the law seemed to make no distinction between a temporary stay and residence abroad, the taxpayer's claim was strained and unsubstantial. The claim was not allowed.

Indo China is potentially capable of producing large quantities of rice, rubber and other products.

San Diego County has a vital stake in proposition one because the $60 million allocated for San Diego County will give us one of the nation's finest centers for medical training, research, and treatment;

because San Diego County has fewer medical professionals per capita than the rest of California . . . and surveys indicate most of those trained here will stay here; because the new facilities will help San Diego County's biomedical industry grow, generating thousands of new jobs for the area;
because Proposition 1 will complete the new UCSD Medical School, provide needed additions to University Hospital, and complete the plan for operation of San Diego's $34.5-million Veterans Hospital.

78 Helix Students Learn Latin, Russian This Year

By Kathy DeHope

A good number of people at Helix can parlez vous francais or habla espanol or sprechen sie deutsch. But how many can potsne dicere Latina or we govorite po-russky?

This year 35 Highlanders are studying Latin and 23 are learning Russian under Mirian Anderson and George Nepo.

Anderson also teaches two classes of Latin at Grossmont High School along with the two classe she teaches at Helix. She also taught in New Guinea for a year with an emhasis on English as a second language.

Nepo, Russian teacher, has been teaching at Helix for the past three years and has taught Russian and Spanish in the Helix Adult School for four years.

He has taught in Russia, the Philippine Islands, Australia, India, Italy, France, Spain, Portugal, Venezuela, Canada, Columbia, Japan, and China.

Nepo is the author of "Polia and Me", a novel about the life of the Russians and Chinese in northeastern Asia during the aftermath of the Russian Revolution.

His first book, "Psycho Control and Vital Problems of Man," is now being prepared for its third edition.

The Latin and Russian languages both come from the same Indo-European root. Both are very systematic languages.

"Latin is so systematic that it is known as the "mathemetician's language," Miss Anderson said.

Although Latin is not used widely as a conversational language, it is still used in literature.

The Russian alphabet contains 33 letters some of which are the same as the English alphabet. According to Nepo, most students usually learn the alphabet in one lesson and are ready to go on to reading in Russian.

S.V. Sanitation Taxes Cut .10; L.G. .017

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—Estimated property tax rates for the Spring Valley and Lemon Grove Sanitation Districts are down from this year; in the case of Spring Valley, down nearly ten cents.

In Lemon Grove, the drop will be only .017 cents, but as the rate this fiscal year was one of the lowest of the county's 13 sanitation districts at $.13 per $100 of assessed valuation, there was not much room for a downward movement.

Both districts collect substantially more of their revenue from the monthly sewer charge than from the property tax.

The Lemon Grove district is the only one of two operated by the county that has no bonded indebtedness. The other is Rolando.

The total preliminary budget is $1553,000, of which $69,500 will be paid to the San Diego Metropolitan Sewer System for final disposal treatment.

Taxes will contribute $37,450, charges will bring $97,500 and a fund balance of $18,000 make up the usable funds.

Spring Valley has a budget of $405,208 in the preliminary figures. Of this, $124,900 will be paid to Metro, $147,338 for bond interest and redemption, and $76,250 for repair and maintenance.

The sewer charge and connection fees will bring in $247,680 as against tax money of $85,064.

The rate is expected to go from $.217 to $.177.

Proposition 7 raises money, not taxes.

Completion of the State Water Project and other voter approved programs vital to the growth and prosperity of Southern California are in peril, because the state constitution has placed a 5% maximum ceiling on the interest rate state bonds can pay.

Since investors can easily earn higher interest rates in the present money market, they aren't buying our bonds, and these vital programs have come to a virtual standstill for lack of financing.

State Water Project Is Awaiting Completion

$600 million in bonds authorized by California voters for the last phase of the State Water Project remain unsold. (Both principal and interest on these bonds will be repaid by water and power systems—at no cost to the taxpayers.)

An inadequate water supply is already holding up construction of subdivisions in parts of San Diego County, resulting in a housing shortage and unemployment of workers in the building trades. The problem could become worse if San Diego continues to receive less than normal rainfall. Every single household could be affected by lack of water.

Children Are Waiting for New Schools

Over $13 million in public school construction is being held up in San Diego County alone, because $269 million in voter approved school construction bonds remain unsold. In many parts of San Diego County, children are being bussed to less crowded schools, and double sessions are necessary until these new school facilities are completed.

Veterans Are Waiting for Home Loans

$200 million in voter approved bonds for the Cal-Vet home loan program have not been sold. 4,500 veterans are now waiting for home and farm loans, and 1,100 more apply each month. Like the water bonds, these are self-liquidating, with no cost to the taxpayer.

Old Town San Diego Is Waiting to Become a State Park

Beaches, parks, recreational and historical projects—including Old Town San Diego—are awaiting completion because $75 million in bonds authorized by voters for these projects remain unsold. (Construction of other state facilities is also being held up.)

The Solution Is Proposition 7

The solution to the problem of unsold state bonds is simple. Vote "yes" on Proposition 7, and raise the maximum interest rate limit on state bonds from 5% to 7%.*

California bonds will once again be competitive in the money market. The flow of cash will resume. And water, school construction and other essential projects and programs can get moving again, without crushing new tax burdens for you. It should be the easiest decision on your ballot June 2nd.

*The interest limit does not mean that bonds will be sold at the maximum interest rate. In the past, under the existing 5% limit, state bonds have been sold with interest rates as low as 1¼%.

Vote "YES" on Proposition 7, June 2nd

Double Race Weekend To Smoke Up Oval At Cajon Saturday, Sunday Nights

The first double race weekend of the 1970 racaing season at Cajon Speedway will bring on the swift sprint cars of the California Racing Association.

Friday night, May 29th at 8:00 p.m. will see a full program of sprint cars racing with a trophy dash, four 6 lap heats, a 15 lap semi-main and a 30 lap feature.

Some of the top chauffeurs in the west will be out to break George Farmer's fastest lap at Cajon Speedway of 17:10 set in 1968. Farmer also holds the 30 lap mark of 9:04:58 set on the same date.

El Cajon Stock Car Racing Association' first open competition of the year will smoke up the oval May 30 with a 50 lap main event.

Racing only the top cars, it will be a 25 lap semi-main, 25 laps of consolation races, and two 15 lap heats to qualify for the main.

Every kind of car is welcome with the exception of open wheeled vehicles.

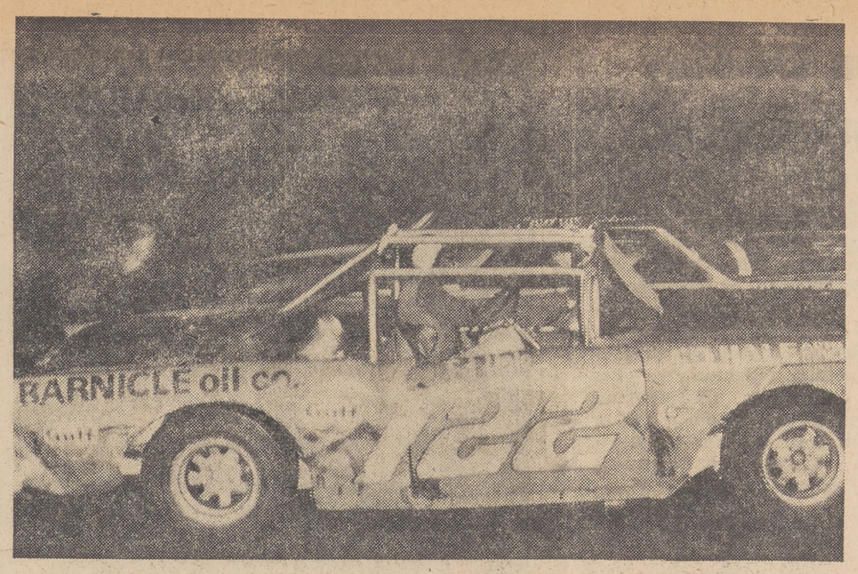
A purse of near $4,000 is anticipated for the usual full house Holiday crowd.

The 50 lappers are a special breed. The 1969 Super Stock Champ, Jim Whitt won two last year and Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove and Bucky Peralta won one each.

The odds on favorite for this week's special feature would be Russ Bullen of Bonita, four time winner and 30 lap record holder.

Bullen has been the class of the field since the season started. Russ' 290 point lead over Lemon Grove's Ed Hale would give some optimism to the rail pickers.

Second place Hale and third place John Dineen of El Cajon have both won features and are exepected to give Bullen his closest competition.



INTO THE TURN goes Lemon Grove's suicidal driver, Ed Hale, as he attempts to pass George Esau on the outside. Hale managed to pass enough cars last Saturday night at Cajon Speedway to rack up sufficient points to remian in second place in the point standings.

Murrell's Mama Is Taxi Driver In Port Limon

The mother of Ivan Murrell, the Padre outfielder, is a wonderful, merry person whose talent transcends the activity ascribed to even the most gifted of tender genders.

As the first lady cab driver in Central America, she has blossomed into something of a conglomerate and with her family now owns and operates, in addition to cabs, a fleet of buses, in Port Limon, Costa Rica.

As Ivan recalls, and not without a trace of fondness, his mother was quick to offer the family vehicle for whatever land transportation the tourists would require. Unflinchingly, she established a fee for the service.

"The car was a 1958 Plymouth (in the year 1962)," Ivan said, "and we painted it green and white."

The colors were significant in that they corresponded completely with the taste of the political party then in power and, presumably, enabled the drivers to claim a reduction in their traffic fines.

"We bought another car and soon had a total of four," Ivan said. "We began downtown taxi service and also offered tours by reservation."

"We saved enough money and took out a loan to buy two buses," Ivan said. "At first, even my mother drove the buses. Now we have a regular crew. And we're making money."

Ivan explained that his mother's buses run every 25 minutes from 5 a.m. to midnight and cover a 10-mile route. The fee is five cents a head, which, when Ivan is driving, also allows a passenger an afternoon of baseball conversation.

LETTERS

Dear Editor:

The recent furor over pollution has brought out many of the urgent problems we face, but we feel it has neglected some of the things done in the San Diego area to control pollution. The Point Loma Outflow, for example, has changed Mission Bay from a polluted harbor to one of the finest recreation areas in the county.

Santee Lakes is another sewage treatment facility, and it not only makes the water usable but creates a beautiful series of lakes for fishing and recreation.

We have much to do toward controlling pollution, but the success of these two projects makes the job seem a little more possible.

Sincerely,
Mike Phillips

E. C. "CHUCK" WILLIAMS
When E. C. Williams was appointed Assessor in December, 1965, he took immediate steps to correct the weaknesses of that office and to streamline its operations. Results of his work quickly were apparent and in 1966 he was elected Assessor by an overwhelming majority. Under his direction the Assessor's Office has averaged an almost 10% budget saving each year during the last four years—and this in spite of increased workload and costs. His office has been rated "superior" in appraisal and assessment procedures and policies by the State Board of Equalization. His experience in this office, plus his 14 years' service as an FBI executive, ideally qualify him to provide effective, dedicated leadership in the Assessor's Office.

San Diego County has one of the lowest crime rates in the nation because of the efficiency and competency of the district attorney's office and local law enforcement agencies.

And Bob Thomas has played a key role in this accomplishment. That's why he's assistant district attorney now, and why he is being endorsed by district attorney Don Keller who is retiring after a distinguished 24-year career. Bob Thomas knows the job. He has been in the district attorney's office 15 years . . . was promoted to chief deputy attorney in 1965 . . . and to assistant district attorney in 1968. He's highly regarded as one of the top prosecutors in the state and has provided experienced leadership for the DA staff's impressive record of convictions. He has personally prepared and successfully tried numerous complex and sensitive cases.

More importantly, Bob Thomas can immediately take over the vast responsibilities of district attorney. He is already a vital force in the effectiveness of the office and its fine working relationship with law enforcement agencies. Without Bob Thomas, crime and favoritism in law enforcement could move rapidly into San Diego. We must elect him DA.

Committee to Elect Bob Thomas District Attorney

Phone us and we will mail you the detailed facts on why Bob Thomas is so well qualified to be district attorney. We think you'll be impressed.

Whitefly Treatment Phase Over In Area

The treatment phase of this year's joint County-State program against the insect, woolly whitefly, is nearly completed, reports James R. Carlin, Pest Detection and Eradication Deputy for the San Diego County Department of Agriculture.

The infested zone covers approximately 22 square miles and includes portions of Lemon Grove, Encanto, National City, Spring Valley and San Diego.

Carlin said that recent inspections in the infested zone show that the pest has been virtually eliminated where treatments have been applied.

In conjunction with the treatments, County and State survey crews have been inspecting all areas surrounding the infested zone. Over 88,000 properties have been examined this year.

Shelton Gets National Post

M. J. "Shelly" Shelton, vice-president of the consulting engineering firm of Koebig and Koebig in San Diego, has been elected national vice-president of the Consulting Engineers Council of U. S.

He commences his two-year term during CEC's annual convention in Boston in June.

Shelton was an executive of the Helix Irrigation District for ten years. He was general manager and chief engineer of the District when he left in 1956.

He is a past president of the California Association of Consulting Engineers and is a Fellow of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

He was graduated from Purdue University and in 1965 he was principle speaker at the dedication of Purdue's new Civil Engineering Building.

He lives in El Cajon.

School Board Sees Television Demonstration

The Lemon Grove School Board met last Monday night, and were presented with a demonstration of instructional television equipment now being used at Lemon Grove Junior High.

Elmer Pederson industrial arts teacher at the school, showed how the set could record up to one hour of instructional programs broadcast through television stations for replaying at a time when it would be convenient for teachers.

The board discussed possibilities of buying newer, less expensive models, and the hope of forming a library of tapes which would be available to all the schools with the equipment.

Census '70 Nears End

San Diego Urban District Managers report that the 1970 Census of Population and Housing is nearing completion in this area, and that in another week the census takers should have visited every residence on their lists from which no questionnaires were mailed back, as well as at those from which questionnaires were returned incompletely filled out.

They emphasized that all information about individuals and their homes furnished to the Census Bureau is held in absolute confidence under the Federal law. It is used only to provide summary figures such as totals, averages, and percentages. The information cannot be examined by any one other than the census employees who are sworn to secrecy. It cannot be used for investigation, taxation, or regulation.

High School Youngsters To Work For Van Deerlin

An Inland Empire area high school junior boy or girl who lives within the 37th Congressional District, may win a two week trip to Washington, D.C. and work with Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin in his capitol office this summer.

Two boys and two girls will be selected for the educational opportunity which was created by Van Deerlin and is sponsored by Jack-in-the-Box restaurants. The two-week long "on-site-seminar" on Americanism in action also includes tours of the White House, Capitol Hill, the State Department, Supreme Court Building, Smithsonian Institute and other governmental agencies and historic shrines.

"The purpose of the trip is to bring young San Diegans to a better understanding of the federal government and to learn from a practical standpoint the applied methods of its operation," said Van Deerlin.

Students will be selected on the basis of general scholastic aptitude, leadership qualities as exemplified in school and community activities and the student's personal character.

One of the students selected as semi-finalists in the annual contest is Bettina Young, 10257 Gaul Way, Spring Valley, who is a junior at Monte Vista High School.

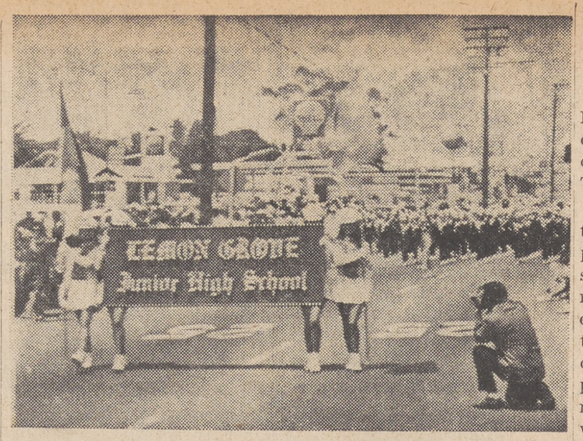
Judging the contest will be Dr. Herbert F. York, former chancellor of the University of California at San Diego; Mrs. William C. Rust, wife of the president of California Western University; and Mrs. Robert M. Kercheval, wife of Capt. Kercheval, former Chief of Staff to the Commandant, 11th Naval District.

Kiwanis Foots Bill For Parkway Jr. High

Kim Rutherford, of Parkway Junior High, was concerned about people mistaking the school for Fletcher Parkway, so she took an idea to the student council.

The plan was to call for large wooden letters to be painted and installed bearing the name of the school on the front of the institute, but the council voted in the purchase of a trampoline instead.

Not one to give up, however, Kim decided to take her plea to the Lake Murray Kiwanis Club, and was greeted with success.



IT WOULDN'T BE a parade without Lemon Grove Junior High's award winning marching band, and nobody was disappointed with the performance. Under the direction of Mr. Weisgerber, the band entertained at the Oldtime Days festivities.

PORAC Backs Mike Schaefer

The San Diego Chapter of P.O.R.A.C., Police Officers Research Association of California, has endorsed Mike Schaefer for the office of District Attorney in the June 2 primary.

The annoucement was made by the group's political action committee this week.

Among other office-seekers, the group gave a pat-on-the-back to George Deukmejian, for attorney general; Bill Craven for supervisor, and Pete Wilson, Wadie Deddeh, E. R. Barnes, and John Stull, for the 76th., 77th., 78th. and 80th. Assembly Districts consecutively.

P.O.R.A.C.'s local membership is 1,600 and includes all peace officers in the county areas.

Nagy Lists Program

John Nagy, a real estate appraiser and assessment researcher for the Statewide Homeowner's Assn., this week outlined his platform in his opposition to the present assessor.

He said he would, as assessor, assess all property at 25 per cent of market value;

Open assessment records to all;

Provide complete assessment records to all branch libraries;

Challenge welfare instutions to prove they are providing "housing for the elderly poor" in order to earn exemptions;

"I believe the property tax is a good tax because it is close to home. It is collected locally, spent locally and controlled locally, but it must be changed so that people are not penalized for improving their property."

Schaefers' Fund-Raiser Has New Twist

There's a new twist in fund-raising dinners that is being utilized by Mike Schaefer, candidate for the office of the district attorney.

It's a do-it-yourself campaign dinner which Schaefer claims is the world's first.

He is distributing as many as 500 banquet dinner tickets, without a date, for $100 a couple.

The unusual gimmick is that the tickets are redeemable at two of the town's most fashionable restaurants at a time and with whom the holder pleases.

Additionally, the contributor does not have to listen to a political speech.

Part of Schaefer's campaign is based on a five-year mandatory prison sentence for those who employ deadly weapons in the commission of a crime. Another item is the belief that taxpayers' property is entitled to the same respect and protection as our homes and business property.

He said the DA's office should have the confidence of local law enforcement officers and that he would form a citizens' advisory council, if elected.

Gonorrhea Up In S.D. County

The Department of Public Health reported that San Diego County is experiencing one of its worst epidemics. The disease in gonorrhea.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of the County of San Diego Department of Public Health, said that during the first four months of 1970, reported cases of gonorrhea among county residents rose 32 percent over the number of cases reported in the first four months of 1969. The figures were 1,063 cases reported through April of 1970; 804 cases reported in the same period of 1969.

Murder-Suicide Uncovered In Lemon Grove

An apparent murder-suicide was uncovered by Sheriff's detectives last week when the Sheriff's department received a call from the landlord of a house on Golden avenue, asking the department to check on the tenants.

Detectives discovered the bodies of Guadalupe Trejo, 38, and Mario Hernandez, 52, in the house. The two were dead from gunshot wounds, but there has been no determination as to who did the shooting.

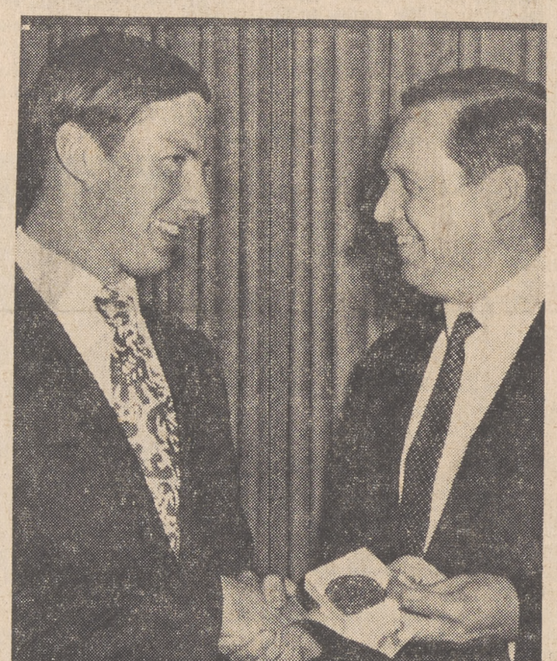
According to the Sheriff's department, the two may have been dead as early as Monday night, May 18.

Williams Claims Assessing Efficiency

Salary savings of $600,000 during the 1967-69 period, plus estimated savings of $250,000 this year, and projected savings of more than $200,000 in 1971 were cited by E. C. "Chuck" Williams, San Diego County Assessor, as examples of the efficiency with which his office has been operating.

Seeking re-election to a second term as County Assessor, Williams reported that his office has been given the rating of "Superior" by the the State Board of Equalization. This rating is awarded to California assessor's offices that have outstanding records of efficiency, as well as modern, effective procedures and policies.

Williams was appointed Assessor in December, 1965, and was elected in June, 1966, for a four-year term in that office.



OUTSTANDING — Michael Newman, of Mount Miguel High School, receives a Gold Medallion and a $100 scholarship from George Dye, vice-president of Central Federal Savings.
The award was made at the 1970 outstanding student awards banquet, held last week at the Kona Kai Club in San Diego. The affair was sponsored by savings and loan associations.

Board O.K.'s Drug Policy

The committee also recommended that expulsion and readmission action be considered by the Board at each of its regular meetings (twice monthly). Presently the Board considers expulsions on the first meeting of every month and considers readmissions prior to the Fall, Spring and Summer sessions.

The committee also recommended that a director of student services, a guidance counselor, and two instructors be employed with the specific purpose of implementing the review committees recommendations including the rehabilitation aspects and improvement of a Districtwide educational program of drug education.

Lemon Grove Juniors Ready For New Year

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors installed their new officers Monday night at the Clubhouse.

Mrs. Robert Ball, past coordinator, installed Mmes. James Flower, President; Wesley Herdeg, First Vice President; Jerry Legerton, Third Vice President; Dennis Hixon, Recording and Corresponding Secretary; M. R. Christian, Treasurer, and O. M. Hughes, Parliamentarian; Mrs. Emmett Phares is the Juniors new Coordinator.

Preceeding the installation ceremony the incoming officers were honored at a Hawaiian Luau. Hawaiian costumes were worn and Pineapple Boats, Bar-B-Qued Ribs and Chicken, Rice, Salad, Coffee and Desert were served.

Mrs. Flower said her theme for the new year would be "Light the Way With Friendship and Service."

Brink Says He Values Total District Opinion

Bill Brink, Republican candidate for Assemblyman in the 77th District, told the Chula Vista Republican Women's club yesterday that he will be a "people's representative — one who values all opinions of the people of the 77th Assembly District."

Brink, a realtor, is president of the Jamul-Las Flores school board and is currently executive secretary of the El Cajon Boulevard Association. He is past president of the latter organization.

Brink is unopposed for the GOP nomination for the post in the June 2 primary.

Ken Hahn Asks Nixon To Open Pendleton Beach

U. S. Senate candidate, Kenneth Hahn, has asked President Nixon to open up the Camp Pendleton beaches for public use.

"I believe at least 10 miles of the beach, if not the entire beach, could be made available to the public," Hahn said in a letter to the President.

"By executive order, you could release miles of California beaches at Camp Pendleton to the public for recreational use."

The Marine Corps has 17 miles of beaches at the base for its exclusive use for amphibious landing exercises.

"Sometimes the entire beach is used only once a year for three or for days in duration for the exercises," Hahn said.

The Supervisor believes provisions could be made for the military to continue using the beach for exercises on special days with the public using the area the rest of the year.

"I am sure millions of citizens of California would appreciate your personal interest in this matter so that the beaches could be made available to the public without necessary restriction to our Armed Forces in their responsibilities," the Los Angeles Democrat said.

LG Fire Report

firemen went to 3785 Gigliotto dr., near the railroad to extinguish a small grass fire.

May 23, the rescue team was called to 8126 Longdale dr., where Richard Rodriquez, 10-years old was given an insulin "shot" and awaited an ambulance to take him to a hospital.

"The state must bear a fair share and larger share of the school cost. It must bring relief to the property taxpayer in so doing..."

—Excerpt from a speech by GOVERNOR RONALD REAGAN
Sacramento, January 11, 1967

This is what Proposition 8 does

- ☐ It restores "the historic 50-50 ratio" for state and local financing of public schools, which Governor Reagan said, in the same speech, "I hope that we will be able to restore."
- ☐ It requires the state to finance 90 per cent of the state and local cost of welfare.
- ☐ Proposition 8 significantly reduces the burden on property taxpayers in so doing, and grants additional property tax relief by increasing the present homeowners' exemption from $750 to $1000.
- ☐ Proposition 8 protects property taxpayers in the future by requiring the state to pay for all new county programs forced on the counties by the legislature and at least 50 per cent of the cost of all new school programs forced on local districts by the legislature.
- ☐ Proposition 8 makes better educational opportunity available—from non-property tax sources —for school students in every district in California.

For PROPERTY TAX RELIEF—NOW
For BETTER SCHOOLS—NOW

Vote YES on Proposition 8

AT THE SAME TIME, VOTE YES ON 7

Hundreds of school building projects, already approved by the people, are held up because the state can't sell its bonds—under existing restrictions in today's bond market. Proposition 7 enables the state to continue its efficient bond marketing program in order to build schools, provide for veterans housing, beaches and parks, flood control and water projects.
